

ROCK ISLAND IS PARTY IN CASE

Judge Creighton Permits Northern Three-Eye Clubs to Fight Injunction

NO DATE FOR A HEARING

Matter May Be Referred to the Master in Chancery for the Taking of Evidence.

Springfield, Ill., April 26.—(Special)—It is just possible nothing will be done by Judge Creighton in the Three-Eye league case for two weeks, at least, as he has a heavy docket and no time to hear the matter. He may refer it to the master in chancery to hear testimony.

WIN PARTIAL VICTORY.

The Rock Island baseball club, representing the north, yesterday became a factor in the Three-Eye league tangle when upon the filing of an affidavit by its vice-president, S. F. Parker, Judge Creighton allowed it to become a party defendant to the injunction proceeding brought by the Quincy club. It was represented that the continuing of the restraining order recently granted Quincy by Judge Creighton, where the Three-Eye is tied up, is working a great hardship on the four northern clubs, Dubuque, Waterloo, Davenport and Rock Island. Mr. Parker stated that they are spending thousands of dollars in salaries to their players and are getting nothing in return. He declared that the four clubs cannot play professional ball profitably unless a schedule is made for all members of the league before May 1. He asks that the injunction be dissolved.

GOOD MATERIAL TO WORK ON.

Inasmuch as the injunction has tied up $50,000 worth of property and involved the employment for the season of 200 baseball players and others connected with the Three-Eye, besides affecting thousands of baseball patrons it would seem that Attorney Quinn O'Brien has good material with which to prevail upon the court to refer the matter to the master in chancery and thereby expedite a decision.

SALZMANN GETS ALL PIN MEDALS

Leader of the Colts Team Star Performer of the Commercial Bowling League.

HAMPTON CLOSE TO HIGH

Comes Within One Point of Reaching It—Season Ended with Last Night's Games.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Colts	52	17	.753
Independents	36	33	.521
Athletics	26	40	.393
Pretzels	24	48	.333

And that is the way that the teams in the Commercial bowling league finished the season, one of the most successful and enthusiastic ever held in Rock Island. The final games were rolled last night. The Colts were easy winners of the tournament. They took a lead in the first series of games and maintained it throughout the year. The Independents upon several occasions were within striking distance, but each time they failed to "strike," and thus missed landing first place. The real race for the last few weeks has been between the Athletics and Pretzels, who have hovered around the bottom of the ladder all through the season. In the last two series of games, the Athletics have nosed away from the cellar position, leaving the Davenport team in the lurch.

For winning the tournament, each of the members of the Colts team will receive a properly inscribed gold medal. As particular star of the season, Arthur Salzmann, leader of the Colts, far outshines his teammates as well as his opponents, and carried off all of the medals offered by the club. His high individual score of 246, made on the first night of the tournament, wins the high score medal.

HAMPTON COMES CLOSE.

Last night O. B. Hampton of the Independents came within one of tying that score. On the last ball in his second game he secured but nine pins. Had he made all of them he would have tied Salzmann's record. The best he could do was 245. For high average Salzmann is again in the lead with 177. John Wich is second with 172 and Charles Roanoke third with 171. For high score for a series of three games, Salzmann had 643, 16 pins better than the next high score made by O. H. Polnow and Herman Wich. So Captain Salzmann wins four medals for this season's work. A banquet will be held at the Harms hotel within a few weeks and the medals will then be awarded. The Colts will receive medals for high percentage and high score for a series of three games.

Last night the Athletics started out to clean up things, and they surely rolled fine games. Every member of the team rolled over 500, and Herceles and Mueller were close to the 600 mark. The total for the three games was 2,743. Their opponents, the Independents, were beaten in all three games. It was in this series that Hampton rolled his high score. Roanoke rolled 555 for the series.

PRETZELS DROP THREE.
The Pretzels were unable to make a spurt in the last ditch and so were easy victors in the Pretzel-Colt series, dropping all three games. The score:

ATHLETICS.

Dr. Jay Andrews

It seemed like getting back home to Dr. Jay Andrews, this season's pilot of the Keweenaw team, when he arrived in Rock Island this morning with his players to meet the local Three-Eye leaguers in a series of three games beginning this afternoon. Andrews was the chief factor in pitching Rock Island into the championship of the Western association back in 1891. Harry Sonier was the other member of the hurling department, the two pitching all the games for their teams with the exception of a few at the end of the season, when Al Mauk was brought on from Chicago to relieve the tension. The men who comprised that famous team were Andrews and Sonier, pitchers; Harry Sage and Purty Zeis, catchers; Bill Kreis, first base; Joe Cantillon, now owner of the Minneapolis franchise, second base; Paddy Lynch, since deceased, shortstop; Belden Hill, third base; Joe Katz, left field; Danny Sweeney, center field; Zeis and Sage alternately in right field.

Andrews has been in the game in all of the intervening years, most of the time in the Western league. The last visit he paid Rock Island was in 1898. "While I am older than in the days I pitched here, I feel as young as ever, and am putting up a passable game at third base. I have been covering that corner for a number of years, but just now am out of condition owing to an injury. This will probably prevent my taking part in the series here, although I would like to do my uniform and show the old fans that I still have the goods. Yes, you'll notice a tinge of gray in my hair, but that was brought on by an attack of typhoid fever and not by old age. No, I am not yet married. I have always felt that I was too young to take on the responsibilities of the double life. I have met many of my friends of the old days. Really, it's just like getting back home." Andrews is a graduate of a Chicago medical college, but only practiced a year. He says he may take up medicine when he gets too ancient to play ball. If that time ever arrives.

SAM CRAWFORD IS LEADING BATTER

First Batch of Big League Averages of the Season Is Given Out.

New York, April 26.—Baseball statisticians here have compiled the first lot of averages for the season. Sam Crawford leads the batting list in the American league with .526, while Larry Lajoie scores .455. In the National league "Red" Dooin, manager of the Phillies stands at the top with mark of .571, and Fred Clark, manager of the Pirates is second.

THREE-EYELETS

The Central league opens its season today. O. dear, poor we.

Bloomington defeated Pekin by a score of 9 to 0 yesterday. Only two hits were secured off Prendergast and Burg.

Yes, the Three-Eye agreement expired last fall. There is abundant evidence of the fact. It was not necessary for anybody to admit it. However, until he was hit by three or four adverse decisions the din sounded like divine harmony to the ears of trouble-loving Dick Kinsella.

DAVENPORT EASILY WINS

Charles Smith New Man.

The Smith who has signed for a tryout with the Islanders is not Elmer Smith the Former Davenport, but Charles Smith, a near Davenport. ## PLAN A PHYSICAL SCHOOL TRAINING

Department Proposed in Connection with Manual Arts Building in City.

NEEDED IN DEVELOPMENT

Probable That New Instructor Will Be Provided with Next Fall Term.

There has been suggested in connection with the proposed manual arts building a department of physical training which will be of great benefit to the students of the Rock Island high school and eventually, when the field of work warrants, to the pupils of the grammar grades as well. This department is one which should receive considerable attention, especially in a city the size of Rock Island. At present the stronger youths of the high school receive the benefits of the athletics, but the smaller boys have an opportunity to do little more than look on. As a result the ones who need the physical development are left without it, while those who are stronger receive all the benefits.

With a manual arts building—and it's almost certain that a new one will be erected in Rock Island within a very short time—room should be provided for a spacious and well equipped gymnasium for the conduct of a physical training department. Members of the board of education are considering this phase of the school work in addition to the increase in the facilities and scope of the manual training and domestic science departments.

INSTRUCTOR NEEDED.

In order to organize the physical culture work, it would be necessary to add a physical instructor to the high school faculty. This instructor would be in charge of the athletics of the school. He would direct the training of all teams and would see to it that the boys played the games for something more than the mere glory of the thing. It would probably take some time to place this work on a firm foundation, as there is now no organization of the work. However, whether the new gymnasium is provided for in the new building or not, it is argued that the physical training should be placed upon an organized scale as soon as possible. It is probable that an instructor will be added next fall. Classes in physical culture would be conducted each afternoon, and the girls as well as the boys would be required to take the work. There is room in the high school gymnasium for such work, but the equipment would be limited.

BETTER SCHOOL SPIRIT.

With the increased facilities for the manual training branches and the addition of the physical training department the Rock Island high school would be placed in the front ranks in high school work, and with such advantages to offer to the young people of the city, the number to enroll in the school each year would undoubtedly be increased. The addition of this department would also tend to preserve a better order and better spirit throughout the entire school.

The Theatre

"MADAME SHERRY"

It is a foregone conclusion that the Illinois will be crowded for the performance announced for Monday night, of "Madame Sherry," the sensational musical comedy success to be interpreted here by the Karl Hoschna-Otto Hauerbach New Amsterdam Theatre company, direct from New York, where the production's success is a musical sensation of the current season. Once in maybe a score of years a hit occurs like that scored by this production. Though but half a year old in this country, most of the airs of "Madame Sherry" are already popular numbers in every town and city where music is understood. "Every little movement has a meaning all its own," the theme song of the piece, has been a rage here in town for months. "The Butterfly" is another air that has the town by the ears. But it is in laughs as well as in songs that "Madame Sherry" is unique as a sensational success, according to report. The company assembled for the presentation of the production here includes a roster of famous celebrities. In New York the organization has been alternating with the other New Amsterdam Theatre company. The role of Yvonne Sherry, described as one of the most captivating prima donna conceptions in all the realms of musical imagination, will be sung by dainty Ada Meade, a prima donna whose most recent lyrical hit was scored in the title role in the big production of "Mlle. Modiste." Dallas Welford, a comedian who was one of the laughing hits of the country several seasons ago in "Mr. Hopkinson," will appear here in the leading low comedy part of the piece. Another well known name among the principal leaders of the organization is that of Neal McVay, who will be remembered as the Governor of Zealand in "The Red Mill" and Donagel in "Florodora." Other comic opera favorites of the roster include Ben Grinnell, H. O. Stephens, Richard Smith, Estelle Thebaud, Lillian Tucker, and of course there is a feminine chorus. "Madame Sherry" is still an overflow hit at the New Amsterdam theatre New York. A specially enlarged orchestra is another feature of the company.

"THE MIDNIGHT SONS."

Lew Fields' mammoth spectacular

musical production, "The Midnight Sons," headed by a cast of unusual proportions, including as star feature George W. Monroe in his original creation of "Pansy Burns," will be the attraction at the Illinois theatre next Tuesday night. "The Midnight Sons" is divided into eight scenes and two acts. The first scene shows the banquet room of the insomnia hotel with a stag dinner in progress. Senator Constant Noyes, a millionaire, is about to sail for Africa in search of big game. He starts his four sons, the midnight sons, in business. One opens a shoe store, two build a hotel, while the fourth builds a theatre for Miss Merri Murray, America's most famous show girl. The next scene then shifts them to the shoe store where occurs some of the most genuinely funny situations in the piece. Pansy and Lily Burns, two cook ladies, enter to purchase shoes. The two brother clerks have the time of their life. George Munroe and Harry Fisher are said to have been responsible for much of the business which they themselves added to the situation. Then comes the interior of the Merri Murray playhouse, with tiers of boxes, balcony and gallery with over 500 seats occupied. At first glance the paid audience thinks it is looking into a mirror which reflects a view of the real theatre. In this scene comes many specialties and even more fun than was to be had in the shoe store. The chorus is one of the features of the enormous production. There are show girls, who sing only certain numbers, mediums, who have their songs, "girlies" who are seen alone, and lastly, the sprightly ponies.

"MADAME X." IN CHICAGO.

"Madame X," Alexandre Bisson's celebrated play of emotion which has earned for itself the appellation of "the dramatic sensation of Europe and America," returns to Chicago next week, beginning an engagement at McVicker's theatre on Sunday night. Miss Dorothy Donnelly, whose portrayal of the mysterious woman who gives the play the name, electrified Chicago audiences for a period of 20 weeks when the initial presentation of the drama was made there nearly two weeks ago, will again be seen in that role. Associated with Miss Donnelly will be a company of the unique and extraordinary collective capability which distinguishes every acting organization sent forth by Henry W. Savage. No detail of production that made for emphasis and impressiveness in "Madame X" as originally shown has been altered or allowed in the slightest degree to fade or lessen in color, so that, considered from any viewpoint, the visit of the play to McVicker's at this time may be considered, even by the most critical commentator, simply as a resumption of its previous and tremendously successful engagement in Chicago, which was interrupted only because it was found impossible to longer delay the presentation of the play in New York. But for that contingency the appearance of "Madame X" at McVicker's would not be a resumption of the Chicago engagement; that appearance would not yet have been concluded; for when "Madame X" was taken from Chicago to New York it was at the very height of its popularity and was attracting audiences of enormous proportions. In New York the Bisson drama duplicated its Chicago triumph, and since that time has repeated its record in every large city of the country.
